Finding Adult Care

Life Made Easier

HRI can:

- Provide you with educational materials on choosing adult care and community services for your loved one and all your caregiving needs
- Help you figure out how to manage financial issues and paying for care
- Guide you in finding state and federal benefits your loved one is eligible for
- Advise and support you in discussing difficult topics such as living wills and end-of-life care

HRI can provide information and educational materials on:

- Legal concerns
- Long-distance caregiving
- Emotional aspects of caregiving
- Living wills and end-of-life planning
- Dealing with conflict
- Sleep problems
- Special needs
- Communicating with health care providers
- Financial issues

HRI can provide referrals to:

- Support groups
- Suppliers of durable medical equipment
- Useful websites
- Adult care providers
- Expert organizations
- Senior centers
- And many other services and providers

For free and confidential services, simply call 888-673-1153 or log on to www.hriworld.com
username: columbia | password: eap